BYRON CENTER PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Helping Students Build Success Stories

West Middle School Parent News
May 23. 2022

Move Up Day/Orientation
There will be no Move Up Day for 8th graders this year. In working with the high school, students will receive all information that they need during their orientation at the high school in late summer.

7th Grade Field Day
Our 7th Grade Field Day will be held on Friday, May 27 during school hours. * Please note – students must be passing three of their classes and have their fines paid to participate in Field Day.

NJHS Volleyball Tournament
NJHS will be hosting a Volleyball fundraiser on Thursday, May 26th after school from 3-5pm in the West Middle School gymnasium.. Students who wish to watch the tournament may purchase admission tickets at the door on May 26th for $2. We will be selling concessions at the door as well. Whether you are playing or watching, make sure to come celebrate a great year here at West Middle School on May 26th!

Summer Sports Camps
Summer sports camp registration is now live at https://byroncenterathletics.com/main/otherad/contentID/51817658

Extra Help
Is your child in need of extra help or support? Please remember that we have B.E.S.T. Monday – Thursday mornings in the LMC. Students can go through the office to the LMC to get help on school work. We also have After School Support on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 3:00 – 4:00 pm in the LMC. You do not need to sign up in advance to attend.

Drivers Needed
If you are interested in becoming a bus driver for the Byron Center District, please contact the Bus Garage at 616-878-6496. There is paid training and competitive wages.
